

L'AMOUR DE MOY

Love's Bower

15th Century French Chanson
English Words by PAUL ENGLAND

15th Century French Melody
Arranged by RALPH VAUGHAN WILLIAMS

Molto tranquillo

VOICE

PIANO

mp molto espress.

p tranquillo

L'a - mour de moy s'y est en - clo -
Love hath set up his se - cret bow -

- - - se De - dans ung jo -
- - - er Deep in a gar - den

ly jar di net OÙ croist la ro se et green and fair; Li ly and rose do

Ped. * Ped. *

le mu guet Et aus sy fait la charm the air, cantabile And fra grance blown from

Ped. *

pas se ro se.
 ma ny a flow er.

Ped. *

Ce jar din est bel et plai sant
 Fair is that gar den, full of bliss,

Ped. * Ped. * m.d. Ped. *

Il est gar - ny de tou - tes fleurs;
 Broi - der'd with blos - soms fresh and gay,

On y prend son es - bat - te -
 Where all my joy and com - fort

- ment Au - tant la nuit com - me le is, Sweet - ly to rest cantabile by night or jour.

 day.

He - las! Il n'est si dou - ce cho - Hark! from her haunt a - mong the ro -

- - se Que de ce doux
 - - ses Sweet - ly there sings the

rous - si - gno - let Qui chante au soir, au night - - in - gale, Sweet thro' the night, till ma - ti - net: Quant il est las il il stars are pale, cantabile And scarce at morn her

se re po
song she clo

Red. *

- se. Je la vy l'au tre
- ses. I've seen my love at

Red. * Red. *

jour ceuil lir La vi o ear ly dawn Ga ther the m.d.

Red. * Red. *

- lette en ung verd pré,
vio let new ly blown.

La plus bel - le qu'onc - que je No fair - er flower did strew the

ff. * ff. * m.d.

veis Et la plus plai - - sante lawn, No sweet - er maid was cantabile

ff. * ff. * ff. *

à mon gré.
 e ver known.

ff. * ff. *

pp

ff. * ff. *