The musical score is arranged in two systems. The first system consists of ten staves: three for strings (Violins I, Violins II, and Violas), two for woodwinds (Flutes and Clarinets), two for brass (Trumpets and Trombones), and a solo violin part. The second system consists of six staves: two for woodwinds (Flutes and Clarinets), two for brass (Trumpets and Trombones), and a solo violin part. The tempo is marked 'Poco largamente.' at the top and bottom. The score is marked with 'sempre cresc.' and 'poco f' throughout. The solo violin part is marked 'Violo div.' and 'mf'.

The image displays a page of musical notation for Symphony No. 2 (I), page 178. The score is organized into two systems. The first system consists of ten staves: the top two are for woodwinds (flute and oboe), the next two for woodwinds (bassoon and clarinet), and the bottom six for strings (violin I, violin II, viola, cello, and double bass). The second system also consists of ten staves, with the top two for woodwinds (flute and oboe), the next two for woodwinds (bassoon and clarinet), and the bottom six for strings (violin I, violin II, viola, cello, and double bass). The notation includes various rhythmic values, such as sixteenth and thirty-second notes, and dynamic markings like mf. The score is written in a key signature of two flats and a time signature of 3/4.

This system contains the first five measures of the piece. The top four staves (Violins I, Violins II, Violas, and Cellos/Double Basses) feature a rhythmic pattern of eighth notes, starting with a forte (f) dynamic and increasing to più f by measure 3. The woodwind and brass staves (Flutes, Oboes, Clarinets, Bassoons, Horns, and Trombones) are mostly silent in the first two measures, then enter in measure 3 with a poco f dynamic. The strings (Violins I, Violins II, Violas, Cellos/Double Basses) also enter in measure 3 with a poco f dynamic. The bottom two staves (Double Basses and Trombones) are silent until measure 4, when they enter with a f dynamic and a molto cresc. marking.

(d. = d)

This system contains measures 6 through 10. The dynamics continue to build, with the top four staves reaching più f by measure 7. The woodwind and brass staves maintain their poco f dynamic. The strings continue their molto cresc. pattern, reaching a f dynamic by measure 10. The bottom two staves (Double Basses and Trombones) also reach a f dynamic by measure 10.

The musical score consists of three systems of staves. The first system includes woodwinds and strings, with a prominent ff dynamic marking. The second system features a brass section with f dynamics. The third system shows a piano part with pizz. and f dynamics. The score is divided into measures, with some measures containing rests or specific musical markings like pizz. and f.

H stringendo

This system contains the first system of the score. It includes staves for woodwinds (flute, oboe, clarinet, bassoon) and strings. The woodwinds play melodic lines with various dynamics including ff and più f. The strings play a rhythmic accompaniment with mf cresc. markings. A double bar line is present in the middle of the system.

This system contains the second system of the score. It includes staves for woodwinds and strings. The woodwinds play melodic lines with mf cresc. markings. The strings play a rhythmic accompaniment with più f and mf cresc. markings. A double bar line is present in the middle of the system.

Poco largamente.

The musical score is written for a full orchestra and a solo instrument. It is in G major and 3/4 time. The tempo is marked "Poco largamente." The score is divided into two systems. The first system includes a solo instrument part with dynamics like "f marc." and "dim.", and a string part with "arco" and "div." markings. The second system continues the orchestral texture with various dynamics and articulations.

Poco largamente.

muta D in Es.

Molto largamente.

This system contains the first two measures of the piece. It features a complex arrangement of staves: two vocal staves at the top, followed by four piano staves, and a double bass staff at the bottom. The tempo is marked 'Molto largamente.' Dynamics include f, più f, and p. A key signature change is indicated by the instruction 'muta Es in E.' in the double bass staff. The notation includes various rhythmic values, slurs, and accents.

This system contains the next two measures. It continues with the same multi-staff arrangement. Dynamics are primarily f and più f. The instruction 'pizz.' (pizzicato) is used in the piano staves. The notation continues with complex rhythmic patterns and slurs.

Molto largamente.

Più moderato e largamente.

The first system of the musical score consists of ten staves. The top five staves are for the string sections (Violins I, Violins II, Violas, Cellos, and Double Basses). The bottom five staves are for the woodwinds and brass (Flutes, Oboes, Clarinets, Bassoons, and Horns). The music is written in a key with one sharp (F#) and a common time signature. Dynamics include mf (mezzo-forte), f (forte), and ten. (tension). There are several accents and phrasing slurs throughout the system. The tempo marking 'Più moderato e largamente.' is positioned above the first staff.

The second system of the musical score continues with the same ten staves. It features 'arco' markings above the string staves, indicating that they should be played with the bow. The music continues with various dynamics, including mf, f, and p (piano). The tempo marking 'Più moderato e largamente.' is repeated at the bottom of the system.

This system contains ten staves of musical notation. The first four staves are grouped together with a brace on the left. The notation includes various dynamics such as dimin. pp, f, p, cresc., p cresc., and dimin. molto ppp. There are also articulation marks like ten. and phrasing slurs. The bottom staff of this system has a trm marking and a trm symbol.

lunga

This system contains five staves of musical notation. The first two staves are grouped together with a brace on the left. The notation includes dynamics such as f, p, cresc., dimin. molto, and pp. There are also phrasing slurs and a lunga marking at the end of the system.

K Andante sostenuto.

The score is written in a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#) and a 2/4 time signature. The upper section of the page features several staves with melodic lines and rests. A prominent feature is a pair of staves marked marcato, which contain rhythmic patterns of eighth and sixteenth notes. Below these, there are staves with more rhythmic and harmonic textures, including a bass line with a steady eighth-note pattern. The lower section of the page consists of a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) with a single melodic line in the bass clef, marked with fz (forzando) dynamics. The overall texture is dense and rhythmic, characteristic of a late 19th or early 20th-century symphonic work.

The first system includes staves for woodwinds (flute, oboe, clarinet, bassoon), strings (violin I, violin II, viola, cello, double bass), and a solo instrument (likely a piano or harp). The second system continues with similar instrumentation. The music is written in a key signature of two flats and a 4/4 time signature. The score features complex rhythmic patterns, including sixteenth and thirty-second notes, and various dynamic markings such as mp, dim., poco, and pocof. The notation includes slurs, accents, and fermatas, indicating phrasing and performance instructions. The overall structure is dense and detailed, typical of a full orchestral score.

The image displays a page of musical notation for the fourth movement of a symphony. The score is organized into several systems of staves. The top system consists of four staves with a treble clef and a common time signature (C). The first two staves contain dense sixteenth-note passages, while the third and fourth staves play sustained notes. The second system includes a solo part for a single instrument, marked with a treble clef and a common time signature, starting with a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic. Below this, there are two staves with sustained notes, one marked p and the other mp. The third system features a series of tremolos on a single staff, marked mf. The final system consists of five staves with complex rhythmic patterns, including sixteenth-note runs and chords, marked with a forte (f) dynamic. The page concludes with a common time signature (C) and a forte (f) dynamic.
