GOOD MUSIC!

VOCAL

Thinking of Mamma in Her Grave,
Stanley. Price, .40
This touching song will memorize many a lost one in thousands of broken households, and is already a great favorite.

The Old Farm Well, - Stanley, .40
Founded on an incident, which happened during the late war, and will find a place in many hearts who lost husbands and fathers during that never-to-be-forgotten time.

There is Peace Beyond the River,
Millard. .40
A beautiful sacred piece, and one more success added to Mr. Millard's long list.

In Pensive Thought, Duett for tenor and soprano. Meares. .60
Mr. Meares has here given us an exquisite melody to Lord Byron's beautiful words.

Kissing. Squeezing. Two rousing comic songs, by that king of humorists, Billy Carter. Each, .40

Golden Gates Ajar. Feeney. .40
A very fine sacred song.

When you get home, Remember me.
Henry C. Work. .40
The author of 'Grandfather's Clock,' 'Marching thro' Georgia,' and hundreds of other popular songs, has founded this on the death of Lieut. DeLong, of the lamented Jeanette expedition. We consider it the best song he has ever written.

THE PARROT AND THE BILLY GOAT, THE MONKEY AND THE MULE.
By the same author. One of those comic songs seldom met with, very laughable and not vulgar. .40

INSTRUMENTAL

The Fire Bells March, arr. by Chas. E. Pratt. .40
Introducing Henry C. Work's great song, "The Fire Bells are Ringing." Now played by all the orchestras with great success.

Ora E. Sempre Waltz. O. C. Hedstrom. .50
One of those home pieces, which if you once play will always be your favorite.

Honey Suckle Waltz. Jungman. .40
Like all of this popular composer's works, very fine.

March Triumphale. J. Q. Hoyt, Jr. .40

Happy New Year March. J. Q. Hoyt, Jr. .50

Arizona Polka. J. Q. Hoyt, Jr. .35
Three of the best selling pieces on our catalogue.

Flee as a Bird. Transcription. J. J. Freeman. .75

Jerusalem the Golden. " J. J. Freeman. .75
Two magnificent arrangements of these well known airs.

Namouna. Fantasie de Concert. Otto Vatel. $1
Something which good players have been on the lookout for, and we are sure they will be suited with it.

LAST OF AUTUMN WALTZ. J. H. Rohrbough. .50
You are probably familiar with, as its beauty has been so often spoken of at all society gatherings.

THE LITTLE BELL OF ST. MARY.
Erwin Schneider. .50
Considered by many superior to the ever favorite, "Monastery Bells" to which it has some similarity.

The above pieces are selected with great care, and are recommended for their unusual excellence. For sale at all first class music stores, or sent postpaid by the publishers on receipt of price.
