PREFACE.

THE want of such a book as this has long been felt in Canada. Rarely, if ever, we think, has there been brought together in one volume, so rich a treasury of gems in Sacred Song. It requires but a glance at the Index to be satisfied of this; and we feel confident that we will receive the thanks of our musical friends for the production of a book which will largely supply the place of more than a score of publications now in circulation. We have made selections from the Boston Anthem Book, Taylor's Choral Anthems, Harmonia Sacra, Dyer's Anthem Book, Bradbury's Anthem Book, Sabbath Bell, Diapason, Anthem Thanksgiving, Liber Musicus, Novello's Musical Times, and various other popular works; also a number of favourite Pieces of Sheet Music, together with several excellent Manuscript Pieces never before published.

Our connection with Church Choirs and Singing Societies, from childhood, has enabled us to know something of the wants of the people in this direction. We have not, however, depended solely upon our own judgment and experience in the matter. Leaders of Choirs, and Musicians throughout the country have been consulted, many of whom have given us valuable suggestions. To these we tender our sincere thanks. We are especially indebted to the Rev. JOHN McCAL, LL.D., President of University College, Toronto, for an original Anthem; also to THOMAS TURVEY, Esq., late of Toronto, WM. HILTON, Esq., and L. A. MAFFRE, Esq., of Montreal, for original compositions.

The book is not denominational, but suitable for all Evangelical Churches and Societies. The words, for the most part, are scriptural, practical, and devotional, and, in their adaptation to the music, exceedingly happy and appropriate.

We trust that the Divine blessing may accompany this offering; that the words of Inspiration, given in Song and Anthem, may be engraven upon the hearts of the thousands who sing, as well as of the thousands who listen; that more light and truth and love may be seen in the Sacred Word, and that new life and strength and grace may be imparted to travellers on their pilgrimage to the Better Land.

"We'll crowd Thy gates with thankful songs,
High as the heavens our voices raise;
And earth with her ten thousand tongues,
Shall fill Thy courts with sounding praise."

HEARKEN UNTO ME. Anthem.

Andante.

Arranged from CHAPPEL.

First Soprano.

Hearken, Hearken,

Second Soprano.

Hearken, Hearken,

The first system of the musical score consists of three staves. The top staff is for the First Soprano, the middle for the Second Soprano, and the bottom for the piano accompaniment. The piano part begins with a dynamic marking of mf. The vocal lines are mostly rests, with the lyrics 'Hearken, Hearken,' appearing in the vocal staves.

The second system continues the musical score. The vocal lines now contain the lyrics: 'Hearken, hearken un-to me, hearken un-to me, ye that fol-low, ye that fol-low,'. The piano accompaniment provides harmonic support for the vocal lines.

The third system concludes the musical score on this page. The vocal lines contain the lyrics: 'Ye that fol-low af-ter righteousness, ye that follow af-ter righteousness, ye that seek the Lord ... ..', followed by 'Ye that fol-low af-ter righteousness, ye that follow af-ter righteousness, ye that seek the'. The piano accompaniment continues to support the vocal lines.

WHAT IS LIFE?

W. B. BRADBURY.

1. What is life? 'tis but a va - por, Soon it van - ish - es a - way; Life is but a dy - ing ta - per, O, my soul, why wish to stay?
 2. See that glo - ry—how re - splendent! Brighter far than fan - cy paints; There in ma - jes - ty trau - sen - dent, Je - sus reigns—the King of saints:
 3. Joy - ful crowds his throne surround - ing, Sing with rap - ture of his love; Through the heav'n's his prais - es sound - ing, Filling all the courts a - bove.
 4. Go, and share his peo - ple's glo - ry, 'Mid the ransomed crowd ap - pear; Thine a joy - ful won - d'rous sto - ry, One that an - gels love to hear.

Why not spread thy wings and fly Straight to yonder world of joy? Why not spread thy wings and fly Straight to yonder world of joy?
 Spread thy wings, my soul, and fly Straight to yonder world of joy? Spread thy wings, my soul, and fly Straight to yonder world of joy?

For home, that paradise of earth,
We thank thee, oh! our Father.

3.

We thank thee that the sword of death,
No longer wildly waveth,
We thank thee for the feeble breath
Thy matchless mercy saveth—

That in thy house to praise thy name,
Thy grateful children gather;
And find thy smile of love the same—
We thank thee, oh! our Father.

4.

We thank thee, though thy chastening rod
The toil of life hath frozen,
Though we have laid beneath the sod,
Our cherished, and our elmsen;
That we may meet where vawns no grave,
Nor tearful mourners gather,
Through Him who died, the lost to save,—
We thank thee, oh! our Father.
