Verse 2 Voices

Organ

The first system of music features an organ accompaniment in the lower register and two vocal staves in the upper register. The organ part consists of a steady bass line with chords. The vocal lines are in a 3/2 time signature with a key signature of two flats. A dynamic marking of mf is present above the first vocal staff.

The second system continues the organ accompaniment and vocal lines. The lyrics "O how sweet are thy words un-to my throat" are written below the vocal staves. The organ part includes a chord progression with figures 6, 6, 6, and 7.

The third system features the organ accompaniment and vocal lines. The lyrics "yea sweet-er yea sweet are thy words un-to my throat" are written below the vocal staves. The organ part includes a chord progression with figures 6, 6, 6, and 7.

The fourth system continues the organ accompaniment and vocal lines. The lyrics "yea sweet-er than ho-ney un-" are written below the vocal staves. The organ part includes a chord progression with figures 6, 6, 6, 5, and 6.

The fifth system concludes the organ accompaniment and vocal lines. The lyrics "-to my mouth O how" are written below the vocal staves. The organ part includes a chord progression with figures 6, 5, and 6.

Trumpet Stop

The musical score is written for a trumpet and voice. It consists of several systems of staves. The top system shows the trumpet part with a 'Trumpet Stop' instruction. The vocal line begins with the lyrics 'I will give thanks un-to thee O Lord among the peo-ple'. The piano accompaniment includes various fingering numbers such as 6, 4, 3, and 5. The lyrics continue through the page: 'I will give thanks unto thee O Lord among the peo-ple I willsing prai- - - - - fes unto thee, among the Na- - - - - tions, I willsing prai-fes, fing prai- - - - -'. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings.
