Japanese Lullaby.

Words by Eugene Field.

Music by M. J. Hill.

Allegretto.

(1) Sleep, little Pigeon and
(5) sleep, little pigeon and

fold your wings - little blue pigeon with velvet eyes;
fold your wings - little blue pigeon with mournful eyes

Sleep to the singing of mother bird swing-ing - swinging the nest where her Am I not singing, see I am swing-ing - swinging the nest where my little one lies. (2) & way out yonder I see a star dar-ling lies. fine. or

(3) Lie thro' the window a moon-beam comes,

fine

Silvery star with a tinkling song; Do the soft dew falling Little gold moon beam with mist-y wings; All silently creeping it hear it calling - calling & tinkling the night along.

 ask, "Is he sleeping - sleeping & dreaming while Mother sings.

(4) Up from the sea there floats a sob, Off the waves that are breaking up - Andrit Ad lib.

- on the shore; As tho they were groaning in anguish & moaning - Be-

- meaning the ship that shall come no more. But al fine
