dome; And live in peace and hap - pi - ness, When all the boys come home.

We'll have no more false hopes and fears,
 No more heart-rending sighs—
 The messengers of peace will dry
 The weary mourner's eyes.
 We'll laugh and sing, we'll dance and play—
 Ah, wait until they come,
 And joy will crown the happy day
 When all the boys come home.

CHORUS—We'll hoist, etc.

How proud our nation then will stand!
 United ever more,
 We'll bid defiance to the foe
 That dare approach our shore.
 We'll hoist the starry cross again
 On freedom's lofty dome,
 And live in peace and happiness
 When all the boys come home.

CHORUS—We'll hoist, etc.
