

KEN

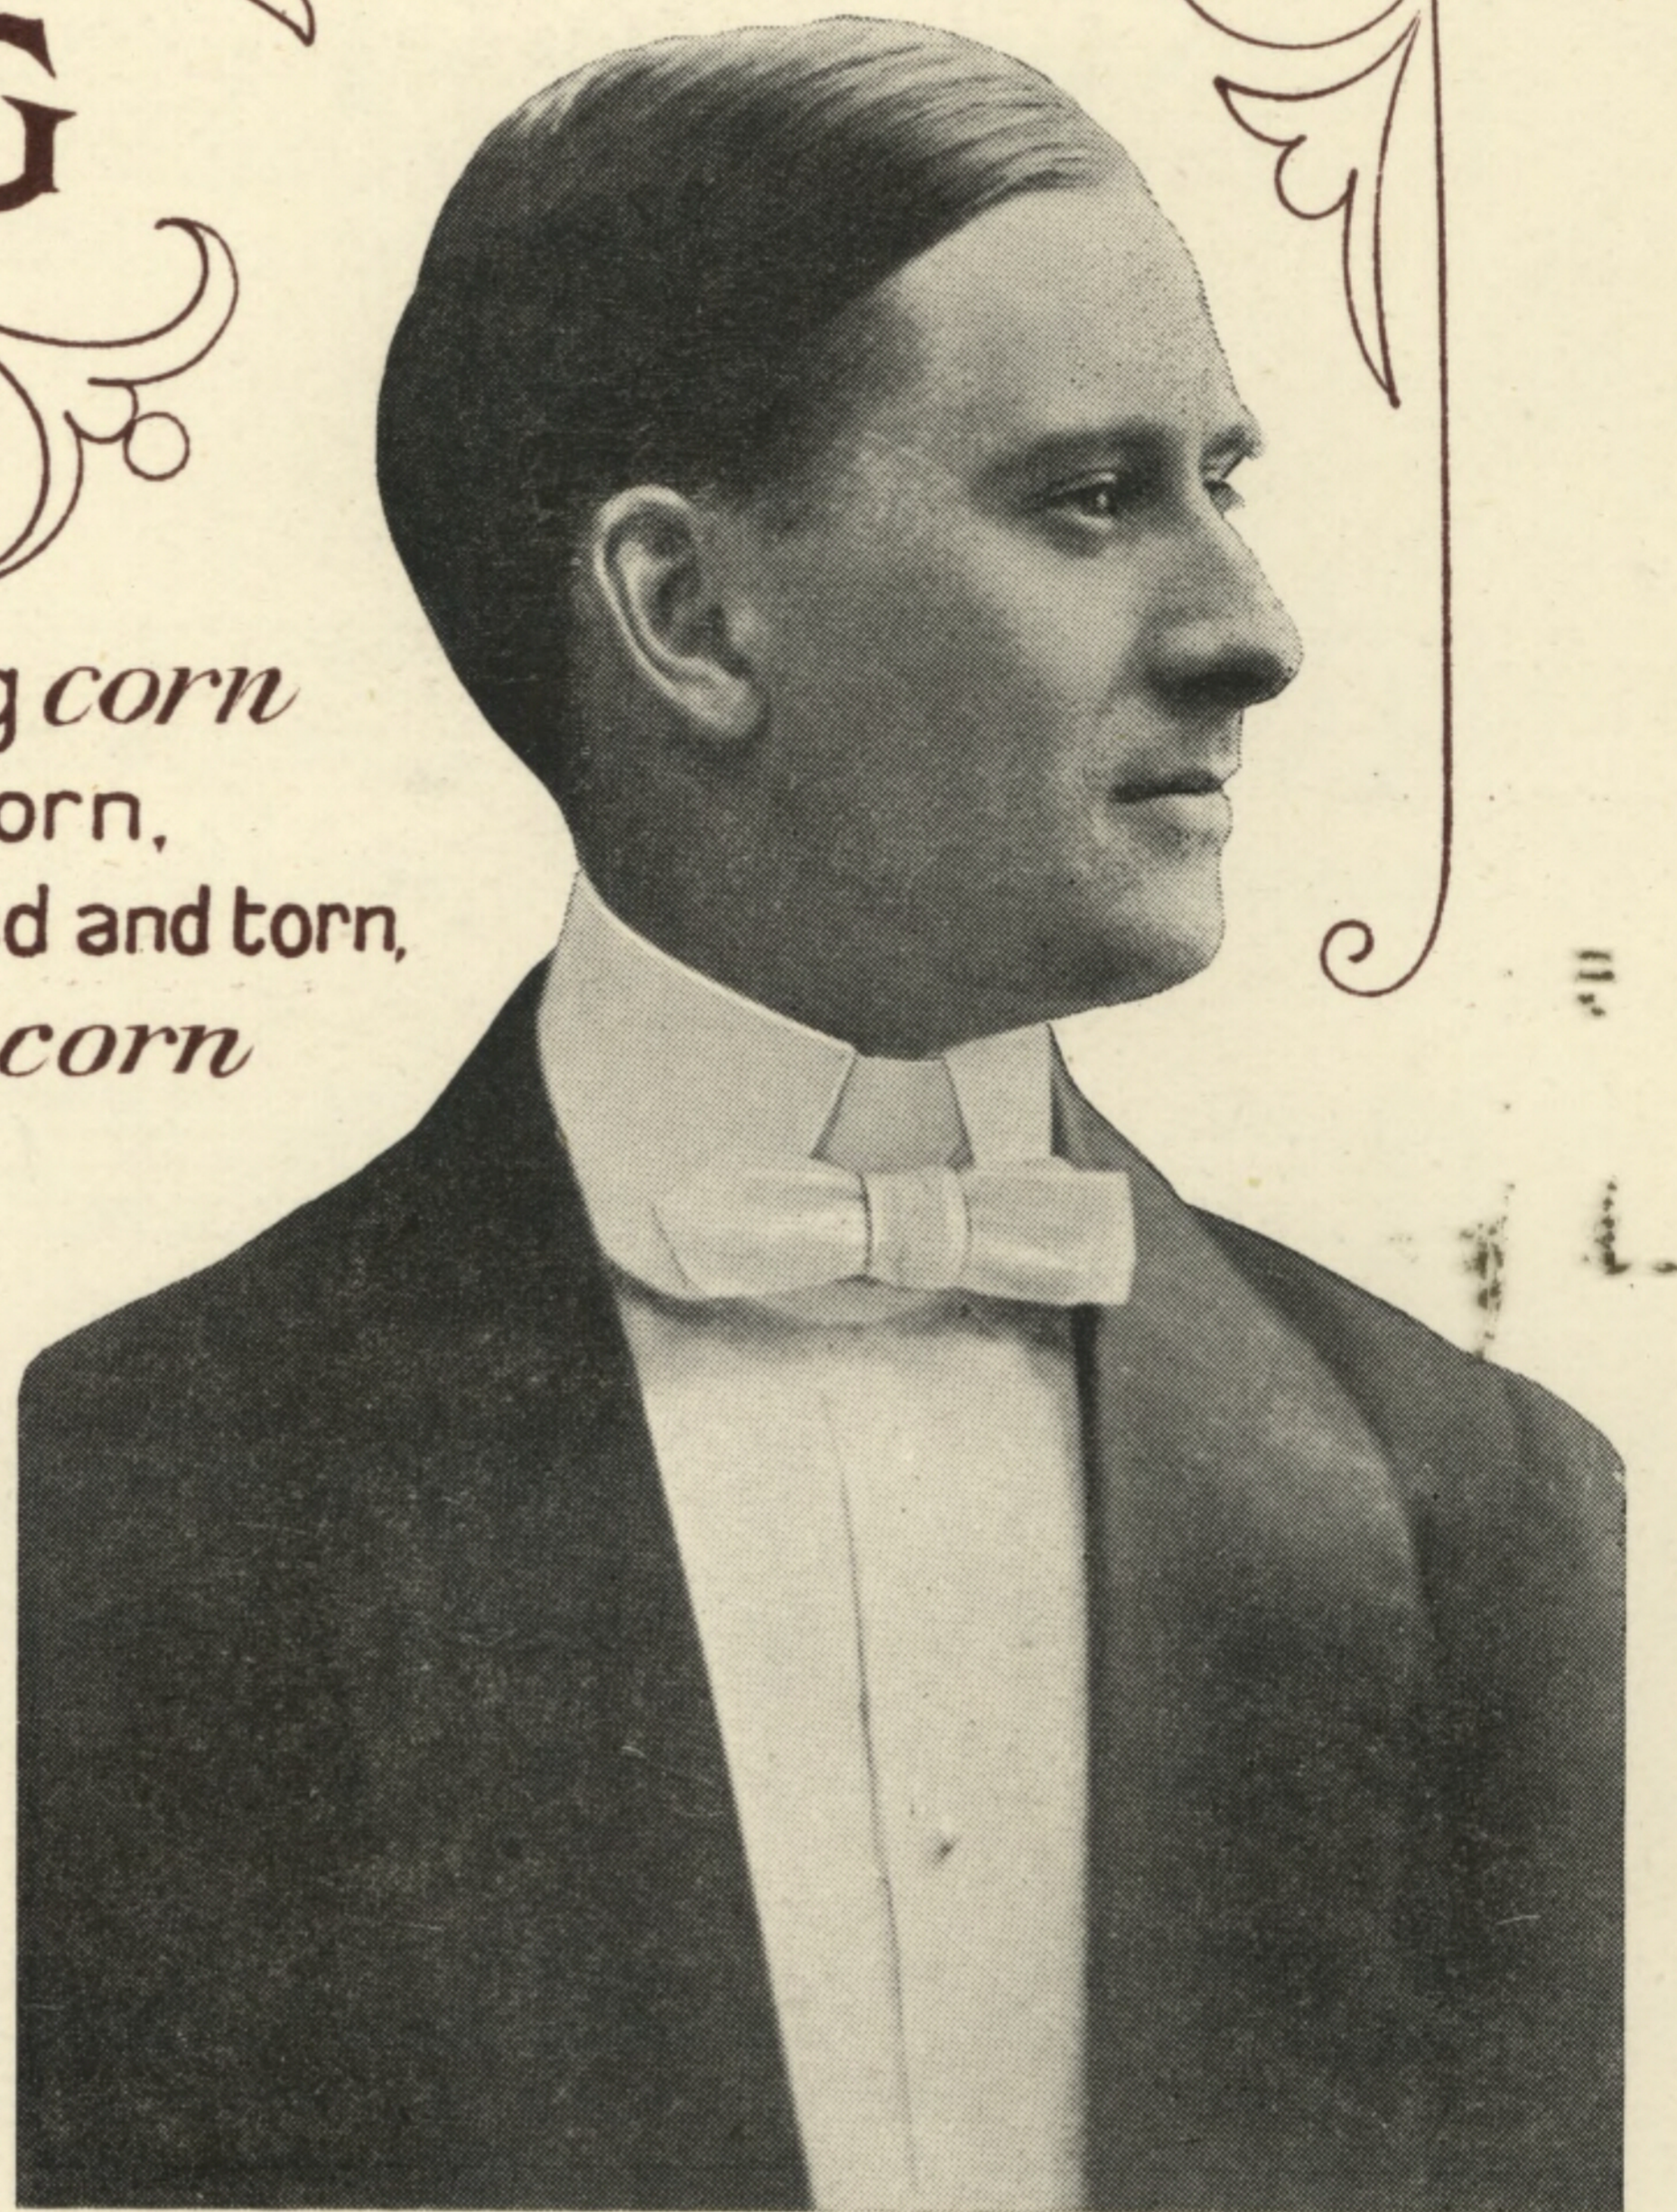

THEATRE & MUSIC HALL RIGHTS RESERVED FOR PERMISSION APPLY TO REEDER & WALSH.

BURLESQUE BALLADS

HUMOROUS SONG

Chorus

When the son with rosy blushes rests upon the throbbing corn
 He discovers in a jiffy that each rose has got its thorn,
 And the boot that holds the favourite sends him skyward tired and torn,
 When the son with rosy blushes rests upon the throbbing corn

Written and Composed by
Edward Kent

Sung by
Fred Rome

Copyright.

London,
REEDER & WALSH,
 14, CASTLE STREET, W.

PRICE 2/- NET

Melbourne,
STANLEY MULLEN & CO
 234-236 Flinders Lane.

Edward Kent