

TO
MRS. GIBSON PEACOCK.

GOOD-NIGHT

Words by

W. R. THAYER

COMPOSED BY

ALFREDO BARTOLI.

3

PHILADELPHIA.

Published by W. H. BONER & CO. 1102 Chestnut St.

Copyright 1878 by F. S. Foxman

GOOD NIGHT.

Words by W.R. Thayer.

Composed by Alfredo Bailly.

Lento.

The moon is sink - ing fast, my love, The stars now shiner less bright With a hea - vy heart must I depart, Good night, my love, good night. Heav'n guard thee through the eve - ly hours, And speed the morn - ing's flight. I will Copyrighted 1878 by E. D. Freeman.

cres Piu mosso

can re-turn to my heart's so-journ Good night, my love, good night. The

cres

cres agitato

moon has sunk at last, my love, The stars with-hold their light But even

cres

sempre cres f

In my dream thine eyes shall beam, Good night my love, my love good night, But even

cres

f = rall. Piu lento

In my dream thine eyes shall beam, Good night my love, my love good night.

more rall ff

Good Night